2. Alexander, B. FROM THE NIGER TO THE NILE London 1907 1st ed. Two thick volumes. 358 & 540 pp, ill, folding maps. The author started in West Africa (Chad and Niger River) trying to find a way east to the Nile. He gave excellent, detailed reports of sport and spent much time hunting lion, elephant, buffalo, rhino and plains game. A long respected set of exploration and hunting, ranking with Baker, etc. Firm hinges, most desirable in this thick heavy set. Nice set in original red gilt cloth. Solid vg+ condition Corners square and nice. Text block tight. Foxing on edges of text block, and endpapers but not on text blocks. Very heavy—extra postage. $ 1,600.00

3. Andersson, C.J. THE LION AND THE ELEPHANT 1873 London 386 pp. FIRST ed. Frontis of lion. By the author of LAKE NGAMI and THE OKOVANGO RIVER. His scarcest, most sought after title and one of the hardest to obtain books on elephant & lion hunting. This remarkable book also includes stories from other noted hunters like WC Oswell, and stories on other game animals like lions and rhino. A hunting classic ranking with Neumann, Sutherland, Stigand and Finaughty, perhaps surpassing them in some way. RARE. VG+. Rebound in green cloth with leather gilt spine label. New endpapers. Bookplate of noted collector F P Williamson. $ 950.00

4. Angas, G. THE KAFFIRS ILLUSTRATED A facsimile reprint of the original 1848 ed of hand colored lithographs. New intro. by Frank Bradlow. Imperial folio 22 x 16 inches. 30 colored plates tipped in by hand. Limited to 950 copies. The original is perhaps one of the most desirable piece of Africana ever printed. Angas is one of Africa's foremost artist/explorer/naturalists. At the turn of the century he was so respected that bibliographers considered orig eds of his work as the most uncommon of all Africana. This is the ONLY facsimile reprint ed of his work. Substantial extra postage. $ 475.00

Denker, one of Africa's most respected PHs, grew up hunting in Namibia, Mozambique, Cameroon and Tanzania for himself and clients. Hewas the first hunter allowed into Bushmanland in 1993. Through his pioneering efforts, that relatively unknown part of Africa has yielded some great hunting trophies. Denker hunted the big five, plus bongo, greater & lesser kudu etc. The middle section is entirely on hunting elephant. For hunters or collectors, ALONG THE HUNTER'S PATH should be required reading. $130.00

205. Grant, Wayne INTO THE THORNS Hunting the Cattle-killing Leopard of the Matobo Hills. 2007 Zimbabwe. 569 pp, profuse color ill. This book was published by African Hunter magazine—they really know their stuff—and so does the author, PH Wayne Grant, who has many awards, including Professional Hunter of the year. He has plenty of dangerous game experience. If you're seeking a really good book about leopard hunting, there is plenty of leopard hunting here. It is well written and produced and a book we enjoyed reading and are proud to recommend. Thick, heavy book. Large format—extra postage. Stock low. $100.00

NOW IN STOCK: EVERYTHING YOU EVER WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT

HUNTING THE AFRICAN BUFFALO By Peter Flack You can argue about which animal is the most dangerous, most glamorous, rarest, etc. But what you cannot argue about is the fact the African Cape buffalo hunting is the favorite dangerous big game animal among hunters, and the other African buffalo species are popular to hunt as well. Now, well known hunter/author Peter Flack has brought together everything there is to know about hunting the African buffalo (all subspecies). In this monumental work, 480-pages, 700+ color & b/w pictures, there are articles from hunters of yesteryear as well as the top professional and amateur hunters of today. There are even chapters on guns and clothing. Of the 30 articles by today's top professionals 28 have been written especially for this book. The Who's who of this author contributor list includes: Robin Hurt, Don Cowie, Rudy Lubin, Jeff Rann, John Oosthuizen, Jason Roussos and more. Well known hunters from earlier times include Selous, Taylor, Findlay, Christy, Temple-Perkins, Kirby. By having articles from past and present times, the reader can see how things have changed, or how they have remained the same. This is bound to become an instant classic. Peter Flack needs no introduction. All of his limited edition books have been sellouts and his recently produced works on the spiral horned antelopes are no exception. Trade editions of his works are also nically designed, well produced and garner much praise. We suspect before long they too will be available only on the secondary market. Trophy Room Books is pleased to offer both the standard and limited editions of this work. Large format—extra postage.

Books by Professional Hunters

301. Fick, Pete CUT TO THE CHASE 2012 CA. 282 pp, 143 COLOR ill, 8.5 x 11 inches. Zimbabwe is one of Africa's best known big game hunting destinations and Pete Fick is one of her best known PHs. Pete's philosophy is definitely "cut to the chase," focus on what is important and get results. He's also culled over 1,000 elephants, plus buffalo, lion and leopard. He's hunted Chewore, Matetsi, Ngamo, Kazuma, Save Valley and recently the amazing Buby Valley Conservancy. Most of the stories are about hunting dangerous game. As Barrie Duckworth told us, Pete has several nicknames. One is "Gasi," meaning blood because Pete is always happy when there's blood in the back of his hunting truck. The other is "tsetere," or honey badger, because Pete is stubborn tenacious and always willing to go the distance. $125.00

302. Hallamore, Lou and Woods, Bruce CHUI! A guide to hunting the African Leopard 2011 CA Almost 250 pages, 135 black & white photographic ill. 5 drawings. Limited trade ed. of 2,000 copies. A leopard does not change its spots. It's the master hunter of the African bush, and it's never predictable. Experience, there's no substitute for it in any form of hunting. But when matching wits with the leopard, experience is priceless. Chui! Offers a chance to get to know this great, unpredictable game animal up close & personal and to benefit from the hard earned savvy of one of the most experienced professionals in the business. There has never been another book like Chui! Trade edition back in print by overwhelming demand. $ 75.00

303. de Lima, Jorge Alves Chasing the Horizon Hunting in East Africa and India 2010 CA. 8.5 x 11 inches. 278 pages, 257 photographs. Brian Herne said about Jorge: "There has never been a hunter anywhere in Africa, at any time, who has ever come close to matching his exploits in so many different countries." De Lima described Tanganyika as a hunter's paradise, a "hidden and distant dot on the map capable of protecting any mortal imbued with the spirit of adventure from the bitter realities of the present." Those were the days when safaris were conducted without telephone or tarmac. Jorge had many secret hideaways, far off the beaten track, where there was hardly a track to follow, where clients hunted successfully for the big five and more. DeLima could have been and done anything, but he chose to spend the 20 prime years of his life years hunting big game in Africa. Hunting with clients mainly in Tanzania with a small section on hunting in India. Large format—extra postage. $150.00

304. de Lima, Jorge Alves In the Company of Adventure 2006 CA 335 pp., 159 photographic illustrations, 9 colored maps, index. 8.5 x 11 inches. In 1948 Jorge "got married" to Africa and never looked back. For nowhere else but in her trackless wastes could a young man quench his thirst for grand adventure. His quest for hunting big game made playgrounds of continents, rivulets of oceans and a nutshell of heaven's vaulted dome. In 1948, Jorge went to Africa and for the next 20+ years he traveled and hunted in 8 countries (including Mozambique, Zambia, CAR, Sudan, Angola) as a hunter, professional hunter, ivory hunter, explorer and founder of two safari companies (in Mozambique and Angola). Werner von Alvensleben named his second Mozambique camp after Jorge (de Lima camp). Whether hunting elephants, buffalo, lion, leopard, rhinoceros, bongo or plains game, Jorge is one of a very few who could capture the excitement, challenge and joys of hunting Africa's big game. To all like-minded men and women who venture into blank spaces on the African gameland map, to be confronted with challenges from nature and animals, this book is dedicated. Large format—extra postage. $150.00

305. Miller, Gerard Lives of a Professional Hunting Family Foreword by Danny McCallum. Contributions by Gerard Ambrose. 2003 CA 303 pp., 230 black & white photographic illustrations. 8.5 x11 inches. From the foreword, "Frank Miller was one of those legendary adventurers and professional hunters with uncanny bush skills who opened and explored vast big game hunting areas. Elsie Miller was formidable with a rifle and an expert tracker. Gerard Miller is considered one of the finest natural hunters of the current hunting era who has honed his skills over the past thirty years...and if you think you have discovered a new piece of hunting country, do not kid yourself, Gerard has already been there." Gerard Miller, one of today's most popular and respected PHs in Tanzania has both a natural hunting ability as well as a keen eye for a good trophy. Look at the photos in his book. There are more stories about hunting the big five than in most other books. $135.00

306. Montvoisin, Robert J. Professional Hunter: Along the Roads to Adventure 2002 CA 284pp., 226 photographic illustrations. 8.5 x 11 inches. Among the cast of characters that played a part in the growth of big game hunting in Central (and East) Africa, Robert Montvoisin is one of the stars. His involvement, over an amazing almost 60 years—40 of them as a professional—in 8 countries (Central African Republic, Chad, Congo, Cameroon, Zambia, Tanzania, Kenya and Morocco) rivals the careers of any PH in Africa. He was one of the first to hunt Africa in her golden era and one of the last to experience the joys of hunting when phenomenal game populations existed. Elephant, lion, leopard, buffalo, bongo and Lord Derby eland—from the forest galleries to the savannas, desert and lake regions. $125.00

307. Holmberg, Andrew Out in Africa: The Extraordinary Life and Times of Andrew Holmberg Foreword by Tony Dyer. 2000 CA. Over 300pp. Over 200 photographs (over 128 full pages of photos). 8.5 x 11 inches. He grew up with the likes of Phil Percival, Bror Blixen and Eric Rundgren. His company, the legendary Selby & Holmberg Safaris took out Robert Ruark. Andrew Holmberg holds the record for the greatest number of 100-pound PLUS elephants. SIXTY THREE taken for family, friends and clients, not counting many that were almost 100 pounds. From the beginning, Holmberg recognized the potential of the harsh Northern Frontier District of Kenya when foot safari blocks were created. He took light loads in because he was going to have heavy tusks and lots of other trophies to take out. His personal best on elephant: 141 pounds per side; his best buffalo: 58 inches! Andrew consistently pioneered hunting new areas. Exceptional trophies were his typical results. In East African professional hunting history, no other individual has been given undisputed credit for so many number one accomplishments. Andrew Holmberg has led a "larger than life" life. $ 135.00

308. LeNoel, Christian On Target: History and Hunting in Central Africa 1999 CA 256pp. Almost 135 photographic illustrations. 7x10 inches. While noted elephant hunters have made areas like Karamojo, Oubangui-Chari, and Aouk River well known, no writer has ever produced a book on the history and hunting of these regions. LeNoel is an experienced professional hunter, and a good writer. Bongo, Lord Derby eland, dwarf buffalo, etc. are found only in these remote, hard to penetrate Central African regions. Those who hunt here had to be hardy...because the game and the country demanded 100% . Stories of intrepid hunters, clients, and others in remote areas, keeping their "rifles in the bush" always ready for meeting a 100-pounder, etc. A superb book on big game in Central Africa with stories of hunting man-killers, rogues, 100-pound tuskers and record book trophies. $ 85.00

309. Foran, W. R. (author of Elephant Hunters of the Lado) Legends of the Field Issued on behalf of the East African Professional Hunters Association. 1997 CA 319pp. 7 x 10 inches. Line drawings by Bob Kuhn. 26 photographic illustrations. Signed by both Tony Dyer and Tony Archer. You don't need money to go on an old time safari. You have only to open the pages of this book. Foran talks about nine of the most famous early elephant hunters in Africa—Samuel Baker, F.C. Selous, Arthur Neumann, W.C. Oswell, Jim Sutherland, W.D.M. Bell, Frederick Jackson, Andy Anderson and Samaki Salmon. An extraordinary look at hunting during its golden age. $ 100.00

Books by Sport Hunters and Professional Writers

310. Bricker, Don JUST ALONG FOR THE RIDE 2012 CA 335 pp, 159 Color ill, 8.5 x 11 inches. Ltd to 1,000 signed, numbered copies. Foreword by Mike Bartlett. Intro by Craigh Hamman. Don Bricker is on every PH's list of favorite clients. He's an enthusiastic hunter whose many accomplishments in the big game hunting field make for great reading (and he's an accomplished writer as well). Most of the book is about hunting in Africa (lots of dangerous game), but Don has been to Europe, Asia, Australia, and made many hunts in North America (lots of sheep hunting). He enjoys the thrill of the hunt, the solitude, and challenges of the chase. The journey, he finds, often provides more memories than the destination. You meet all kinds of people in life; Don is the kind that makes you happy you selected the same road he travelled on. $ 125.00

Finally, a bibliography of African big game hunting books for readers & collectors and sportsmen and women.

311. Czech, Dr. K. AN ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY OF AFRICAN BIG GAME HUNTING BOOKS 1785 to 1999 2011 CA 311 pp, 32 colored ill. Whether you're interested in old classics or modern ones, whether you want to read about Tanganyika or Tanzania, Rhodesia or Zimbabwe, Northern Rhodesia or Zambia, there are literally hundreds of books described to whet your big game hunting reading appetite. This updated, vastly expanded version of Ken's first book—nearly DOUBLE the number of entries—includes books by hunters, pioneers, explorers & settlers. From the first stalwart individuals who ventured to Africa, to more recent groups of intrepid sportsmen who trod game paths across the dark continent, virtually all who told of their efforts in book form (prior to 2000) are represented here. Essential for collectors, dealers, and armchair safari enthusiasts. $85.00

FACING DOWN FEAR by John Sharp

A limited edition of 500 copies, signed, numbered and slipcased.
2018 South Africa. 336 pp. Profuse color ill.

John Sharp is one of today's most respected, recognized and larger-than-life professional hunters. The praise garnered for him and his book, FACING DOWN FEAR, is amazing.

Robin Hurt: John Sharp is unquestionably one of Zimbabwe's leading Professional Hunters...(and) As a professional he is in a league of his own.

I J Lariviers: FACING DOWN FEAR is much more than a book of hunting stories, it is the incredibly interesting story of someone who has truly lived.

Brooke Chilvers-Lubin: No one ever forgets the first time they met Professional Hunter John Sharp.

Jim Carmichel: John Sharp joins the list of professional hunters who have great stories to tell and who knows how to tell them. He has earned a reputation for being everything a PH ought to be.

Mark Newton (Director Rigby Firearms): If you have the least bit of interest in African hunting and paid the slightest bit of attention to activities involving African hunters over the past four decades, then John Sharp needs no introduction.

And finally- Richard Lendrum: If there is one person I would suggest spending a day with in the bush before you or he exits planet earth, it would be John Sharp.

But – if you can't spend a day with John in the bush, then you must spend time with his book FACING DOWN FEAR. Whether hunting lion, leopard, elephant or buffalo John has plenty of stories to tell. One of the most exciting is about when John almost lost his arm due to an encounter with a puff adder. For over 40 years in seven African hunting countries, John has guided a variety of hunting clients, often while facing his own fears, and always giving credit for success to his trackers, staff and client. John is that kind of really good hunter, good guy, and a good writer, too. If you are interested in firearms, then John also has plenty of info to share.

As C S Lewis says: Life is too short for words, so don't try to describe it, just live it. That is what John Sharp has done. And that is what he recounts in FACING DOWN FEAR.

This limited edition is sure to become a cherished title on your bookshelf and with only 500 copies of the limited edition, might soon become a collectors' item. Large format—extra postage. $250.00
