Kai-Uwe Denker is one of Africa's most successful elephant hunters and a former President of the Namibia Professional Hunters Association. author. About the Spirit of the African Wilderness is both a fascinating book on hunting the African elephant, and trophy elephant hunting as conservation. It deals with hunting old elephant bulls mainly in Namibia's northern Kalahari (where the big bulls roam) and where hunting is done in the vastness of a pristine, pathless wilderness and on foot. Virtually all hunting in this book has been done within the past twenty years! These stories take place within our recent memory. Trophy photos, again all from recent hunting seasons, give testimony that Kai-Uwe knows how to hunt big-tusked trophy elephants. The book starts with an impressive day amidst the vast African wilds (a great hunting story), covers the game fields of the Dark Continent, talks about the elephant as a game animal, the fine art of tracking, the spell of ivory, elephant hunting and more. This book stands with Neumann, Stigand, and Sutherland books as a great classic on elephant hunting. We read about early hunters who took big ivory, but in recent times, no one who comes close to Kai-Uwe Denker in describing so many successful hunts for big ivory. Only a limited number of English language copies available. Large format postage.

Those were the days when safaris were conducted without telephone or tarmac. Jorge had many secret hideaways, far off the beaten track, where there was hardly a track to follow, where clients hunted successfully for the big five and more. In 1948, Jorge went to Africa and for the next 20+ years he traveled and hunted in 8 countries (including Mozambique, Zambia, CAR, Sudan, Angola) as a hunter, professional hunter, ivory hunter, explorer and founder of two safari companies (in Mozambique and Angola). Werner von Alvensleben named his second Mozambique camp after Jorge (de Lima camp). SIXTY THREE taken for family, friends and clients, not counting many that were almost 100 pounds. From the beginning, Holmberg recognized the potential of the harsh Northern Frontier District of Kenya when foot safari blocks were created.
